Welcome

Roselands Caravan Park and its surrounding area

Roselands caravan and camping park is a traditional 4 star family run park with resident owners who bring a happy, relaxed and friendly approach to the park. The park has been developed to a very high standard and is situated six miles from Penzance. It is a highly select development and has 15 modern caravans and dedicated pitch sites for tourers, motor homes and campers, set in pleasant grounds with beautiful displays of shrubs and flowers. Surrounded by Cornish countryside, Roselands is within a few minutes drive of many picturesque beaches, coves, places of interest and recreational facilities.

Caravans, touring vans and tents

The holiday caravans are set in two separate enclosures surrounded by mature hedges and shrubs with seclusion and tranquillity very much in mind.

All the caravans are connected to mains water, electricity and drainage along with toilets and showers.

All caravans are equipped with:
A gas cooker, kettle, toaster, refrigerator, colour television, electric fire and a microwave.

Well behaved pets are allowed in certain caravans by prior arrangement but must be kept on a lead at all times.

Touring caravans, motor homes and tent pitches are grassed and level.
